

NEUROGINE CAPITAL COMPLIES WITH COVID-19 MEASURES

Neurogine Capital abides with Movement Control Order Measure, ensures uninterrupted money broking and investment trading service on Neurogine nTrade®.

Labuan, Malaysia, March 17, 2020 – Neurogine Capital (L) Ltd is ready to comply with the 14-day “Movement Control Order” or MCO, announced recently by Malaysia Prime Minister Tan Sri Muhyiddin Yassin, which will be imposed from March 18 to 31 nationwide to curb the spread of the Covid-19 infection in Malaysia. It is being imposed under the Prevention and Control of Infectious Diseases Act 1988 and well as the Police Act 1967 and covers a range of activities, including requiring private sector premises to shut its doors during this period.

According Neurogine Capital Chief Executive Officer Owen Chen, Neurogine Capital is ready to comply and has enacted its Disaster Recovery Plan. “The safety of our employees is paramount. We have proactively been monitoring the spread of this pandemic and have curtailed our employees from travelling abroad. In fact, the last of our executives have returned and landed in Kuala Lumpur International Airport two days ago. Neurogine Capital is taking necessary precautionary measures to protect our clients, employees and stakeholders involved in our operations.”

“We are encouraging everyone to adopt the best practices and infection prevention techniques as recommended by World Health Organisation (WHO) and Ministry of Health Malaysia (MoH), like frequently washing your hands, avoid touching your face, practise correct etiquette when coughing and sneezing, maintaining a social distance of at least one metre and seek medical care for those with fever, cough and find breathing difficult. These measures will help reduce the risk of infection and keep families safe.”

Despite the closure of its, Neurogine Capital remains committed to support the operations of Neurogine nTrade®. “We are ready to work remotely and continue our operations and projects while taking necessary steps and actions to help minimise the contagion risks of this outbreak. As such, we wish to assure everyone that we will continue to stay abreast of this COVID-19 outbreak. We will closely monitor and implement additional measures as deemed necessary.”

“We are continuing to operate as usual and without any interruption. We are contactable though our response times may be affected but nevertheless, we are committed to meet deadlines. Neurogine Capital’s office at Financial Park Labuan will be closed from March 18 – 31, 2020. We will work with third parties to ensure our premise is sanitised, adequately equipped with facilities for hand sanitising and ensure temperature screening from guests/ visitors prior to physical meetings with us. We will also discourage handshakes as part of our precautionary measures.”
